BREAKING:

According to a new memo, the Harris-Walz campaign has raised $540 million just since Harris took over — a record for any campaign in history.

Since the start of the DNC, volunteers have signed up for nearly 200,000 shifts — including 90,000 shift sign-ups just from Thursday and Friday alone.

People who say Kamala is the lesser of two evils are lying. Same as they were lying when they said that about Hillary and Biden. They are trying to make Trump seem as palatable as possible so they can justify voting for him or voting third party or not voting. They are just plain lying.

Joy IS a strategy.

Hope is a strategy. Optimism is a strategy. Raising people up instead of tearing them down, creating instead of destroying, building a better future instead just fatalistically allowing the worst one to happen, IS a strategy.

I want to be part of a nation that gives its citizens joy, hope, and optimism instead of an ideology that traffics in hate, fear, and fatalism.

Joy is a strategy.

But, it's been so long since we had leaders who inspired it, we've forgotten that.

Seriously, though, it's not just about the amount of money raised. The Dem donations are mostly coming from individuals, whereas the GOP relies on wealthy donors. The donors only get one vote, no matter how much they spend. A comparison of how many private individuals are donating to each party would be more accurate than any of the polls.

Man claiming to be behind Solingen knife attack turns himself in, German police say

Updated August 25, 2024 5:13 AM ET

By The Associated Press

SOLINGEN, Germany — A 26-year-old Syrian asylum-seeker turned himself into police, saying he was responsible for the Solingen knife attack that left three dead and eight wounded at a festival marking the city's 650th anniversary, German authorities announced early Sunday.

Duesseldorf police said in a joint statement with the prosecutor's office that the man "stated that he was responsible for the attack."

On Saturday the Islamic State militant group claimed responsibility for the attack, without providing evidence. The extremist group said on its news site that the attacker targeted Christians and that he carried out the assaults Friday night "to avenge Muslims in Palestine and everywhere." The claim couldn't be independently verified.

People alerted police shortly after 9:30 p.m. local time Friday that a man had assaulted several people with a knife on the city's central square, the Fronhof. The three people killed were two men aged 67 and 56 and a 56-year-old woman, authorities said. Police said the attacker appeared to have deliberately aimed for his victims' throats. The festival was canceled as police looked for clues in the cordoned-off square.

Ok I'm full blown convinced he really killed Martha Moxley.

[Martha Elizabeth Moxley (August 16, 1960 – October 30, 1975) was a 15-year-old American high school student from Greenwich, Connecticut, who was murdered in 1975. Moxley was last seen alive spending time at the home of the Skakel family, across the street from her home in Belle Haven.

Murder of Martha Moxley - Wikipedia

What ever happened to Michael Skakel?

The Connecticut Supreme Court overturned Skakel's conviction in 2018, after he had served more than 11 years in prison, saying his defense lawyer failed to present evidence of an alibi. A state prosecutor announced in 2020 that Skakel would not be put on trial again and the murder charge was dropped. Jan 3, 2024 (CBS News)]

HARRIS WALZ

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 23, 2024

SPLIT SCREEN DAY: Harris Talks Building Up Economy While Trump Breaks Down

Today, Vice President Kamala Harris launched a new ad to talk directly to voters across eight battleground states about her belief in building up the middle class and creating opportunities for everyone to climb the economic ladder. This comes after her convention speech Thursday night where she talked to the entire country about how her middle class upbringing as the daughter of a working mom helped shape her views of who she should fight for: working people who just want the opportunity to get ahead.

Tonight in Arizona, Donald Trump held a dark, dystopian rally where he pushed even more extreme ideas, like a federal anti-vax conspiracy commission, as he flails and struggles to respond to Vice President Harris' patriotic message of creating opportunity and protecting our freedoms.

Trump's bizarre and weird rants in Arizona are the latest in his "multi-platform meltdown for the ages" this week:

- He called into Fox News where he was heard on air beeping his phone with his cheek because he was so rattled by Vice President Harris's convention speech.
- He called Barack and Michelle Obama "nasty people" and attacked historically Black Divine Nine sororities.
- He rambled incoherently about the Vice President's acceptance speech and complained about her thanking people at a press conference.
- He even kicked a veteran police officer off stage for taking too long speaking because he can't fathom not being the center of attention.

Harris-Walz 2024 Spokesperson Sarafina Chitika released the following statement:

"Last night, Vice President Kamala Harris spoke to the American people about her vision for a future of opportunity for all Americans. Donald Trump immediately melted down and hasn't recovered since.

"Voters are watching an unhinged and unserious man rant on Truth Social, rave on Fox News, and hold bizarre rallies where he rambles for hours about his own problems and throws out strange and dangerous ideas. Meanwhile, our campaign is talking to voters about Kamala Harris' plans to lower their costs, cut their taxes, and create economic opportunity for all of us."

pornosucht

Edited 8d ago

OK, I am careful with this.

On one hand, based on all that we know about the Trump family as a whole, it would not be surprising if Barron Trump would show some behaviour indicating mental health issues.

On the other hand, oop has not provided any links or other sources, not even referenced places or records. The Trump family is powerful enough to probably get rid of official consequences, but if true, some more details should be available (e.g. the year it allegedly happened, functional description of witnesses (maybe a nanny for the animal killing or the mother of the SA victim...), places (Washington, NY, ...)).

At the moment these are wild accusations, for which no background has been provided.

And Donald Trump is himself bad enough, there is no need to involve his youngest son, at least as long as there is no solid evidence.

pornosucht

8d ago

Hit Trump himself with anything you can find. He is attacking anyone without any sense of civility or empathy, and without seeing himself bound to the truth.

But it is different when it is about his family. Don jr has already proven that he is beyond saving and willing to be just as much of a scumbag as his father. That makes him fair game as well in my opinion.

But Barron is a young boy who just came of age, and as far as I know, the worst he did so far is to endorse his father. Hardly a crime, especially at such a young age.

Again, if he did what OP accuses him of, then he deserves any shitstorm coming at him. But only if he actually did it. So before we judge him, we should weigh the evidence, and it should better be good!

OP

8d ago

This type of thing could be fixed, too. Barron has the best teachers and counselors. His parents do all of the wrong parenting for somebody behaving this way, and now he's an adult with N*zi friends because they were the only ones willing to be his friends.

rogirogi2

8d ago

Not when daddy is reinforcing all of it and excusing bad behavior like normal. No chance a counselor gets past that without getting punished.

MrEngineer404

8d ago

Does the Trump family REALLY seem like the type that would allow anyone with even an ounce of mental health treatment experience within a mile of their lineage of demonic little psychopaths?

newbrevity

8d ago

Except Barron has every opportunity to go a different direction and earn the respect of people other than Nazis. But he is being raised in an environment where compassion is considered weakness.

Deezax19

8d ago

They probably don't even like Barron. They're just using him to suck up to his dad.

Reneeisme

8d ago

And they aren't his friends. They just want to be close to power. And close to Trump. He has loathe some people who pretend to be his friends.

Fantasmic03

8d ago

I don't think counsellors can make up for a lack of genuine affection and empathy given by parents. If anything he needed child protective services to remove him from the toxic environment

BrilliantSelect1991

8d ago

Psychopathic tendencies can't be fixed, they can only be concealed. It's really not just the shitty environment that he grew up in, it really takes some fundamentally fucked up mind to be killing animals and attacking/molesting his classmates.

HueyLueyDewey

8d ago

His parents are purely biological. His dad is too much of sociopath to care and his mom seems to be similar. The kid was just a business transaction to her

MrEngineer404

8d ago

To be fair, Barron just had the unfortunate luck of growing up in a more connected and digital world than his half-siblings. I don't think it is a stretch to assume there were similar incidents of psychopathy in Junior's and Eric's youth/present. It is just that Twitter and Facebook weren't around to share insights about allegations that Vanilla Uday and Qusay had to have the family butler secretly buried behind the 18th hole on the golf course.

nnamarinsgrandma

8d ago

One of the older Trump boys (can't remember if it's Eric or Junior) had an ex who also said Baron was displaying very alarming behavior at a much younger age.

MammothDon

8d ago

Any chance he 'gets better' as he grows older? I'm being optimistic here but maybe he's been to therapy or counselling since those days

This past week, Connecticut suffered a devastating, unpredicted, "once a millennium" flood. It ruined houses and took lives.

But it was more than just a freak weather event.

It was a harbinger of what's to come with ClimateChange . AND: it has real health effects, that we need to talk about & respond to. A 3-part thread☐

Floods from 'training thunderstorms' lead to dramatic rescues and 2 deaths in Connecticut

megranney

1da day ago

1. THE WHY:

Climate change makes these "never events" more common.

We are all at risk, and are at increasing risk every year.

And our science can't keep up (just as we struggled with prediction during early COVID, our models are inadequate for the changing climate).

So you may not get a warning in time.

Great article from

@bostonglobe

bostonglobe.com/2024...

megranney

1da day ago

2. SO WHAT?

A flood obviously causes economic devastation. (My friends' home owners insurance doesn't cover these kinds of "acts of god"!) And puts people at risk of drowning or injury, in the moment.

But its effects are much more insidious. An incomplete list:

It exposes people to mold and mildew.

It increases the chance of water-borne diseases.

It leads people to move - destroying community.

It hurts mental health.

It even leads to increased strokes & heart attacks.

megranney

1da day ago

3. HOW DO I HELP?

FEMA may be rebuilding roads, but it isn't helping (yet, maybe ever) with these human effects.

You can help, though!! [links to follow]

food donations

if you live nearby, help clean out the muck & ruined belongings volunteers & families need PPE to protect them while doing the rehab

ppl need basic supplies to restart their lives

I saw a talk recently where a guy used a graph to show (correctly) that “the number of people dying from natural disasters has dropped precipitously over the last 100 years”. Which is true. But he used this as a measure of “see, disasters aren’t that bad”. ☹

United Sovereign Americans (USA), the new right-wing group behind a concerted effort to remove voters from voting rolls across the country, filed a lawsuit targeting Florida's voter rolls — the second such lawsuit the group filed this month.

In the Florida lawsuit filed on Aug. 19, USA — along with a host of co-plaintiffs including the right-wing Citizens Defending Freedom, a voter and eight Republican candidates running in the upcoming general election — allege the state is violating the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA) and state law by failing to remove ineligible voters from its voter rolls. The group claims to have obtained information proving there were “more than sixty-three (63) voting system errors in the entire ballot tabulation for all ballots cast in the 2022 election in Florida” that led to “hundreds of thousands of potential errors” in the 2022 general election.

The errors USA outlines in the lawsuit are related to the state's voter registration rolls. The complaint alleges there were a mass number of illegal votes cast because of duplicate voter registrations, inactive status and a host of other reasons. The lawsuit also argues the state is violating the Help America Vote Act (HAVA) because it exceeds the acceptable federal error rate in a state's voter systems — one error in every 125,00 votes.

Florida Voter Roll Maintenance Challenge

United Sovereign Americans v. Byrd

Filed: August 19, 2024

Lawsuit filed by United Sovereign Americans, Citizens Defending Freedom, one voter and eight Republican candidates running in the 2024 general election against Florida Secretary of State Cord Byrd (R), Florida Attorney General Ashley Moody (R), U.S. Attorney General Merrick Garland and the Florida Division of Elections challenging the state's procedures related to voter rolls and its overall voting system. The plaintiffs allege that the state has failed to remove ineligible voters from its voter rolls in violation of the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA) and Florida law. They also argue that the state's inaccurate voter rolls violate the Help America Vote Act (HAVA) by exceeding the federal error rate acceptable in a state's voter systems, which is approximately one error in every 125,000 votes. The plaintiffs ask the court to compel officials to adequately investigate and remedy the current errors in Florida's voter registration systems and to order the state to adopt new voter registration procedures. The plaintiffs also ask the court to order the state to submit voter registration requests to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security to verify the individual's citizenship status. Finally, they ask the court to block the state from certifying the 2024 general election until the defendants demonstrate the election was lawfully conducted.

STATUS: The plaintiffs filed their complaint on Aug. 19, 2024. The defendants have not responded yet.

I'm so fucking tired of hearing about white privilege when the only truly privileged people on this planet are men. And it doesn't matter what color they are.

But no matter what color you are as a woman you will never know privilege. No amount of money, whiteness or power a woman might have there will always be a man, even other women, to put her back in her place one way or another.

Men get it handed to them at birth.

Just sayin.

-----re pic don's former staff

Let's just peruse a small sample of what a few of these MIA officials have said about Donald Trump, with an assist from Al Franken.

- John Kelly: "The depths of his dishonesty is just astounding to me. . . . He's the most flawed person I have ever met in my life."
- Jim Mattis: "He's dangerous. He's unfit." "The president has no moral compass." "This degradation of the American experiment is real."
- Dan Coats: "He doesn't know the difference between the truth and a lie."
- Rex Tillerson: "A moron."
- Mitt Romney: "I think he's not smart. I mean really not smart." "A whack job."
- Gary Cohn: "Dumb as shit."
- H.R. McMaster: "Cannot understand Putin's hold on Trump."

So puzzle me this: There are two options for president. On the one hand you have a woman who just presented herself as a mainstream Democrat who plans to respect and uphold the fundamental American political traditions at home and abroad.

On the other you have a candidate who you have acknowledged is the most flawed person you have ever encountered, a danger to the country, and an existential threat to our system of government—a convicted criminal, an abuser of women, and a moron. How in God's name do you justify silence in the face of that choice? This is not a close call!

BREAKING:

The DNC and the Democratic Party of Georgia has sued the Republican-controlled Georgia State Election Board to prevent Trump's allies on the Board from blocking the certification of the 2024 election.

The DNC says the lawsuit is to ensure that Georgia's State Election Board "doesn't turn a straightforward and mandatory act of certification into a broad license for any county board member to try and delay or block the certification of election results and the will of Georgia voters."

BREAKING:

Special counsel Jack Smith's Office, in a new court filing, is urging the 11th Circuit Court of Appeals to reverse Judge Aileen Cannon's order to toss out Trump's classified docs case. Smith argues Cannon's ruling was "novel" and "lack[ed] merit."

....

Smith's Office calls out the absurdity of Cannon's ruling that DOJ can't appoint or fund special counsels:

"If the Attorney General lacks the power to appoint inferior officers, that conclusion would invalidate the appointment of every member of the Department who exercises significant authority and occupies a continuing office, other than the few that are specifically identified by statute."

She really should be removed as a judge for anything and where possible any case she has ruled on should be thoroughly revisited, cause it literally is not a stretch to believe she lacks credibility and competency to make decisions without bias regarding legal matters and appears to be someone who has been bought for a price! ☹

wiccantexan

14h14 hours ago

That's probably to not show bias. The 11th Circuit can do it on their own.

mrmufn

14h14 hours ago

If Smith requests Cannon's removal from the case, she gets an opportunity to justify the (unjustifiable) thing she did by tossing the case out. Smith has never asked her to recuse herself, for this reason.

As it is, the question he didn't ask is free to be raised with the circuit judges, who might confer with the judges on that circuit and could decide to reassign the case. That's better than throwing the case out OR re-indicting Trump.

Mariah Carey's mother and sister die on the same day

4 hours ago Nadine Yousif, BBC News

Mariah Carey's mother Patricia and sister Alison died on the same day over the weekend, the US singer has said in a statement.

"My heart is broken that I've lost my mother this past weekend," Carey said on Monday.

"Sadly, in a tragic turn of events, my sister lost her life on the same day."

The Grammy-winning singer said she felt blessed to have spent time with her mother in the week before her death and asked for privacy.

She gave no further details about either woman's cause of death.

Patricia, 87, was a former opera singer and vocal coach of Irish-American descent.

*In Carey's 2020 memoir, The Meaning of Mariah Carey, the five-time Grammy Award-winning singer detailed her complicated relationship with her mother, saying it had caused her "so much pain and confusion".*

Carey's sister Alison, 63, had been receiving hospice care before her death, according to a friend quoted by the Times Union, a newspaper in New York State.

I've also been informed by my attorneys, that you're not even allowed to bring cases literally right before an Election – A direct assault on Democracy! This is an unprecedented abuse of the Criminal Justice System. The case has to do with "Conspiracy to Obstruct the 2020 Presidential Election," when they are the ones that did the obstructing of the Election, not me. They cheated on the Election, and they go after me for "cheating on the Election." Interestingly, this comes at the exact same time as Mark Zuckerberg of Facebook has admitted to concealing massive amounts of information, such as Hunter Biden's Laptop from Hell, which is a direct acknowledgment that the 2020 Presidential Election was MANIPULATED and RIGGED by the DOJ. What they are doing now is the single greatest sabotage of our Democracy in History....

But the gov't makes clear in the first paragraph that its case is about "candidate Trump" not President Trump, in other words, it's complying with SCOTUS' decision in the immunity case that charges or evidence about official acts can't be used."

Jack Smith files superseding indictment against Trump in Jan. 6 case

August 27, 20244:08 PM ET

Carrie Johnson 2016 square

Prosecutor Molly Gaston, in a new court filing, said the Justice Department will not insist that Trump make an in-person appearance for arraignment on the new indictment. The Justice Department said it will confer with Trump's lawyers and try to come up with a joint proposal for how to proceed in the case. Judge Tanya Chutkan had asked for an update by Friday. Special counsel Jack Smith has been consulting with other officials inside the Justice Department for weeks about the case, which accuses then-President Trump of leading a conspiracy to overturn the 2020 presidential election and disenfranchise millions of voters. The scheme allegedly culminated in a cascade of violent attacks on police at the U.S. Capitol three years ago.

There's no chance the case will be tried before Election Day in November. And if Trump prevails, he could direct his appointees at the Justice Department to drop it next year.

2. Despite having lost, the Defendant—who was also the incumbent President—was determined to remain in power. So, for more than two months following election day on November 3, 2020, the Defendant spread lies that there had been outcome-determinative fraud in the election and that he had actually won. These claims were false, and the Defendant knew that they were false. But the Defendant used his Campaign to repeat and widely disseminate them anyway—to make his knowingly false claims appear legitimate, create an intense national atmosphere of mistrust and anger, and erode public faith in the administration of the election.

More posts to follow in due course, just had to put that one out there first to show you what they're attempting to do! The rest of this Thread will be posted after I've collated all the changes.

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

In paragraph 3, they've added "the defendant used his campaign". To show again that this was not an official action of the president.

3/

- a. Co-Conspirator 1, a private attorney whom the Defendant put in charge of his campaign's litigation efforts and who was willing to spread knowingly false claims and pursue strategies that the Defendant's 2020 re-election campaign ("Campaign") attorneys would not.
- b. Co-Conspirator 2, a private attorney who devised and attempted to implement a strategy to leverage the Vice President's ceremonial role overseeing the certification proceeding to obstruct the certification of the presidential election.
- c. Co-Conspirator 3, a private attorney who made unfounded claims of election fraud that the Defendant embraced and publicly amplified.
- d. Co-Conspirator 5, a private attorney who assisted in devising and attempting to implement a plan to submit fraudulent slates of presidential electors to obstruct the certification proceeding.
- e. Co-Conspirator 6, a private political consultant who helped implement a plan to submit fraudulent slates of presidential electors to obstruct the certification proceeding.

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

Here, they've added "as a candidate and citizen". The original started at "the defendant had a right, like every American."

Hammering it home that he was acting as a candidate.

4/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

New paragraph 5, showing that he failed to enlist Mike Pence. This takes the accusation out of being an official act (conferring with his VP) and in so doing, hopefully outside of the reach of the SCOTUS decision.

5/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

New language here: "These co-conspirators...none of whom were government officials during the conspiracies and all of whom were acting in a private capacity"

6/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

New language to describe the co-conspirators (swipe to see original). Note the repeated use of "private".

They've taken out co-conspirator 4, which was Clark - the rogue DOJ official.

7/

- d. After it became public on the afternoon of January 6 that the Vice President, as President of the Senate, would not fraudulently alter the election results, a large and angry crowd—including many individuals whom the Defendant had deceived into believing the Vice President could and might change the election results—violently attacked the Capitol and halted the proceeding. As violence ensued, the Defendant and co-conspirators exploited the disruption by redoubling efforts to levy false claims of election fraud and convince Members of Congress to further delay the certification based on those claims.

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

New language here. It used to say "...Vice President and other government officials". Now it says "Vice President, in his capacity as President of the Senate, and other government officials."

8/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

This has been removed (screenshot from original indictment):

9/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

New language here, to reiterate that Pence was acting in his capacity "as President of the Senate."

10/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

New language here. The sentence "These false claims were unsupported, objectively unreasonable, and ever-changing, and the defendant and co-conspirators repeated them even after they were publicly disproven" has been inserted.

They have also removed this: "...the defendant was notified repeatedly that his claims were untrue - often by people on whom he relied for candid advice on important matters, and who were best positioned to know the facts.."

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

This section has been removed:

12/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

New paragraphs, replacing a list of six things the defendant had done in the run up to J6 to further his election lies.

13/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

New sentence: "The defendant had no official responsibilities related to any state's certification of the election results."

14/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

New language here: "In his campaign speech on January 6, the defendant publicly repeated the knowingly false claim that 36,000 non-citizens had voted in Arizona".

LOVE that they're calling it a campaign speech! Previously, it just said "in his speech"

15/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

New sentence:

16/

14. The Defendant continued to make false claims nonetheless, with deliberate disregard for the truth, including through his Twitter account. Throughout the conspiracies, although the Defendant sometimes used his Twitter account to communicate with the public, as President, about official actions and policies, he also regularly used it for personal purposes—including to spread knowingly false claims of election fraud, exhort his supporters to travel to Washington, D.C. on January 6, pressure the Vice President to misuse his ceremonial role in the certification proceeding, and leverage the events at the Capitol on January 6 to unlawfully retain power.

15. The Defendant continued his lies through the day of the certification proceeding on January 6. That morning, the Defendant gave a Campaign speech at a privately-funded, privately-organized political rally held on the Ellipse in Washington, D.C. During the speech, the Defendant used many of the same unsupported, objectively unreasonable, and publicly disproven lies to exhort the gathered crowd to march to the Capitol.

2h2 hours ago

This has been shortened (swipe for original):

17/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

New language here (swipe for original), including mentions of Pennsylvania and State Farm Arena. The best new bit is: "...the defendant - not as president but in his capacity as a candidate for office..."

18/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

They've streamlined this, taking out a mention of the defendant's "claims of a large number of dead voters in Georgia.."

19/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

These paragraphs have been removed:

20/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

New language here "filed in his capacity as a candidate for President..."

21/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

Brilliant, I love all this! New language: "...his Chief of Staff - who sometimes handled private and Campaign-related logistics for the defendant - and private attorneys involved in the lawsuit against Georgia's Secretary of State..."

22/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

Again, new language inserted: "In his campaign speech.." instead of just "on January 6, the defendant publicly repeated...."

23/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

New language inserted here - both the mentions of the RNC Chairwoman (Ronna McDaniel). Making sure it's all tied back to the campaign, not the official actions of a president.

24/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

These two paragraphs have been removed:

25/

emiandthedesertcrow

2h2 hours ago

More "campaign speech"!

Florida DEP proposal would add golf course, pickleball courts, lodges to state parks

By Asher Wildman, Jason Delgado, and Mark Boxley Florida

UPDATED 7:02 PM ET Aug. 22, 2024

APOPKA, Fla. — The Florida Department of Environment Protection, which oversees state parks, has announced it is planning to add different types of amenities to at least nine state parks through a new initiative.

What You Need To Know

The Florida Department of Environment Protection is planning to add different types of amenities to several state parks across the state through a new initiative

Called the "2024-2025 Great Outdoors Initiative," state officials say the plan has been put into action in an effort to increase public access to state parks, recreation and lodging

The state will be hosting opportunities for public input on the plan at the end of the month
Called the "2024-2025 Great Outdoors Initiative," state officials say the plan has been put into action in an effort to increase public access to state parks, recreation and lodging.

Critics of the plan say it goes against the essence of what a Florida state park is.

Some of the amenities planned, according to documents released by the DEP, include:

A 350-room lodge with beach access at Anastasia State Park

Up to 10 new cabins and a "glamping area" at Camp Helen State Park

Pickleball courts at Dr. Von. D Mizell Eula Johnson State Park, Hillsborough River State Park and Honeymoon Island State Park

A new golf course, and associated facilities, at Jonathan Dickinson State Park, which could require the relocation of the park's entrance, offices and staff residences

Additional cabins and "glamping" facilities at Oleta River State Park

A 350-room lodge at Topsail Hill Preserve State Park

"We have great concerns about this," said Simpson, a Republican and former state Senate President. "We clearly are not for commercializing our state parks and trying to make a dollar out of those."

The DeSantis administration, however, is defending the proposal despite pushback. Late Wednesday, DEP defended itself on X, saying the plan would capitalize on low impact and underutilized areas.

A thought here:

SC Jack Smith presented this evidence to an entirely new grand jury. So, a new group of American citizens, doing their civic duty, sat and heard this evidence and returned "a true bill" against Trump for the 4 charges in this superseding indictment.

katiephang

15h15 hours ago

Straight out of the gate, you can note the new allegations in the Superseding Indictment (SI):

- Smith makes it clear that Trump's co-conspirators were all acting in a "private capacity" or they were "not government officials during the conspiracies."

This is important because if they were acting in private capacities or weren't government officials during the relevant times, then there is no immunity.

katiephang

15h15 hours ago

- Trump's co-conspirators were all "private" individuals: attorneys or a political consultant who assisted Trump in perpetrating his election interference and fraud.

Team Trump clearly broke the law and bullied a vet...

"Federal law prohibits political campaign or election-related activities within Army National Military Cemeteries, to include photographers, content creators or any other persons attending for purposes, or in direct support of a partisan political candidate's campaign," according to the statement. "Arlington National Cemetery reinforced and widely shared this law and its prohibitions with all participants."

Trump's contempt of veterans is catching up to him. His toadies could doubletalk his words, or even outright deny he ever said them (and trash veterans like John Kelly in the process), but that last one one, where he belittled the Medal of Honor, even his inner circle of sycophants, butt snorkelers, ass kissers, and Lindsey Graham (but I repeat myself) couldn't hide that.

So, he staged a photo op at Arlington and danced on a dead veteran's grave.

Also, beat up a woman in the process.

Smooth.

This whole episode is sickening and affront to all those hundreds of thousands of families who never agreed to allow their deceased loved ones to be dragged into politics.

- Purge the government of thousands of civil servants and replace them with unqualified far-right MAGA loyalists
- Send the Justice Department after Trump's political enemies
- Pardon violent January 6 criminal insurrectionists
- Pack the Supreme Court and lower courts with MAGA extremists
- Enact a national abortion ban and restrict IVF access
- Reverse the FDA's approval of abortion medication
- Remove mentions of "abortion" and "reproductive health" from agency materials
- Reverse President Biden's student debt forgiveness
- Reinstate student debt on millions of Americans
- Give tax handouts to the ultra-wealthy and big corporations
- Eliminate union and worker protections
- Cut Social Security, raise retirement age
- Cut and privatize Medicare
- Rip away health care from tens of millions
- Remove protections for preexisting conditions
- Repeal President Biden's law that allows Medicare to negotiate lower drug prices
- Abolish the Department of Education
- Implement and expand book bans
- Go after marriage equality
- Repeal anti-discrimination protections for LGBTQ+ students
- Reinstate Trump's transgender military ban and expel transgender service members
- End climate protections and gut clean energy programs
- Withdraw from the Paris Climate Agreement
- Repeal the Inflation Reduction Act, President Biden's landmark climate law
- Replace climate advisors with fossil fuel lobbyists
- Deregulate big corporations and the oil industry
- Send the U.S. military after anti-Trump protests
- Put immigrants in mass detention camps
- Rip immigrant children from the arms of their mothers
- Reinstate and expand Trump's Muslim ban
- And more...

2 men are charged with toppling ancient rock formations at Lake Mead trail

August 28, 2024

3:12 PM ET

By Joe Hernandez

A federal grand jury in Nevada has indicted two men who allegedly toppled ancient red rock formations in Lake Mead National Recreation Area earlier this year.

The charges carry a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison.

Wyatt Clifford Fain, 37, and Payden David Guy Cosper, 31, each face one count of injury and depredation of government property and one count of aiding and abetting.

The Justice Department says the pair, both Henderson, Nev., residents, pushed the rocks off a cliff, sending them clattering to the ground, along the Redstone Dunes Trail on April 7.

Lake Mead National Recreation Area spokesperson John Haynes told FOX5 Vegas in April that the incident was "appalling" and "disgusting."

DeSantis says DEP state park amenities plan 'will go back to the drawing board'

By Holly Gregory, Ybeth Bruzual, Gary Darling, Phillip Stucky, Associated Press and Spectrum News Staff Florida

PUBLISHED 8:30 PM ET Aug. 28, 2024

Speaking at a news conference in Winter Haven on Wednesday, Gov. Ron DeSantis said a Florida Department of Environment Protection plan to add several types of amenities to at least nine state parks will “go back to the drawing board.”

This comes after residents and environmental groups pushed back against the “2024-2025 Great Outdoors Initiative” that was shared last week.

DISINFORMATION ALERT:

I got asked several times this morning on the ResistanceLive question feed about "why Kamala Harris now wants to build the wall" and how she "flip-flopped."

So everyone is aware, this is SEEDED DISINFORMATION that came from Senator Tom Lankford.

Here's how it went down.

At the DNC, Kamala Harris said she would sign and pass the bipartisan border bill that Trump ordered the GOP to tank after it was already negotiated and approved by both parties.

1/

ecmclaughlin

4m4 minutes ago

Lankford (Trump stooge) told the press that because she had endorsed the bill, Kamala Harris had agreed to "build that wall."

While the bill contains a provision for 900 miles of new fencing, NOWHERE has Kamala Harris endorsed "Trump's border wall."

Another far right Trump stooge (to whom I'm not giving any traffic), and who has written for rags like the Washington Examiner, then got a column published in USAToday claiming that Harris had "stolen" the idea for the wall from Trump.

ecmclaughlin

4m4 minutes ago

Next, Axios, without explaining any of this, amplified the TOTALLY FALSE claim that Kamala Harris had said she wants to build Trump's wall.

The Axios piece has now been repeated in several localized media outlets, including in states like New Hampshire.

However, again, if you dig into this just a tiny bit, what you find is that NOWHERE has Kamala Harris EVER said she endorses Trump's border wall. NOWHERE.

ecmclaughlin

4m4 minutes ago

And this is a prime example of how disinformation takes root when "legitimate" news doesn't do their homework, and bad actors are allowed to run rampant without fact checking.

I find it enraging, personally, and also extremely manipulative and designed to drive division, particularly among Latino voters who are now leaning to Harris-- which is the WHOLE POINT.

ecmclaughlin

4m4 minutes ago

Here is what is actually contained in the bipartisan border bill that Trump tanked, much of which is actually about streamlining processing at the border and more humane routes to asylum.

Know the facts.

New: The Army is now rebuking Trump campaign staff over the Arlington National Cemetery incident.

"Participants in the August 26th ceremony and the subsequent Section 60 visit were made aware of federal laws, Army regulations and DoD policies, which clearly prohibit political activities on cemetery grounds. An ANC employee who attempted to ensure adherence to these rules was abruptly pushed aside."

I've been to Arlington once. Just to visit. It is an amazing facility and how anyone can escape feeling the weight of the sacrifices made by the people laid there for their final rest and our duty to their families to be humble and respectful, beggars the imagination... right up to the point that Trump or his minions are part of the equation. Then it is painfully obvious that they just don't get it. Allowing them to access the cemetery is an act of cruelty; they know that and just don't care.

Would you trust a guy who posts a "Confidential Memorandum" on the internet with our national secrets and classified documents?

Fox Polls are Rigged and Worthless!

CONFIDENTIAL MEMORANDUM

TO: Trump Campaign Senior Leadership Team

FROM: Tony Fabrizio, Chief Pollster, DJTFP / RNC
Tim Sailer, Grassroots Targeting – Chief Data Consultant, DJTFP / RNC

SUBJ: FOX News Battleground State Polls
DATE: August 28, 2024

Here we go again. FOX News has released a series of polls in Georgia, North Carolina, Arizona, and Nevada; all of which show the head-to-head race between President Trump and Kamala Harris well within the margin-of-error.

However, that doesn't account for FOX News's own margin of error in their fall surveys.

Compared to the FOX News surveys from 2020 taken nearest to this date in that election, President Trump's margins on Election Day ranged from +2 over the survey in Georgia, to +5 over the survey in North Carolina, to +9 over the survey in Arizona and Nevada.

In their polls ending September 1, 2020, they claimed President Trump was down -4 points to Joe Biden (46-50) in North Carolina, and -9 points (40-49) in Arizona. President Trump ran 4 points ahead of their survey in NC and 9 points ahead in AZ.

Their poll in Nevada even later in the cycle, ending September 23, 2020, was even worse. They claimed President Trump was down -11 points (41-52) among likely voters. President Trump ran 7 points ahead of their survey. Biden ran behind his polling number, even with undecideds, in both North Carolina and Nevada.

Within these surveys, we see marked shifts from FOX News's last poll of each state with respect to party identification. In Arizona, their previous survey from June had an R+5 advantage (46-41). This new survey has moved Arizona to dead-even 43-43.

In Georgia, their previous survey had an R+8 advantage (48-40). This has been compressed down to R+3 (44-41), with the Democrat self-ID hardly changing but Republicans being knocked down by 4 points.

In Nevada, their previous survey had an R+1 advantage (44-43). This time it is switched around to D+3 (41-44). Once again, the Democrat self-ID hardly changes, while Republicans are depressed down.

In North Carolina, we see less funny business: their previous survey was R+1 (43-42), and their current survey is R+2 (44-42). Coincidentally, President Trump leads in their North Carolina survey.

In each case, FOX News asked the recalled 2020 presidential ballot as evidenced by its appearance on the crosstabs documents for each survey. Curiously, they did not disclose the topline results of that question.

Trump's Arlington Cemetery stunt has taken a dive into the gutter. After campaign staff allegedly shoved a cemetery employee trying to uphold the law, the Army was forced to defend its staffer from Trump's vitriol. I'm counting Obama holdovers David Shulkin, who Trump elevated to head the VA, and Gina Haspel, who stayed on to run the CIA in 2018. My point is that even back to JFK, you've had Democrats appointing a Republican and visa versa. I'm not saying she SHOULD. I'm just saying it's got a ton of precedent. In fact, Biden is about the only exception, and even he has appointed people like Cindy McCain to positions requiring Senate confirmation but not cabinet level.

How is that copying Trump?

In the last 40 years, several U.S. presidents have appointed members of the opposite party to their cabinets. Here are some notable examples:

Bill Clinton appointed Bill Cohen, a Republican Senator from Maine, as Secretary of Defense.

George W. Bush retained Norman Mineta, a Democrat, from the Clinton administration.

Barack Obama appointed Bob Gates, Ray LaHood, and Chuck Hagel to his cabinet.

In a new interview on CNN, VP Kamala Harris responds to questions about policy changes she has made since she ran for president in 2019 (the border, green new deal, etc):

"I think the most important..aspect of my policy perspective is that my values have not changed. I have always believed that the climate crisis is real and that it is an urgent matter that value has not changed. My values have not changed around what we need to do to secure our border. Those values have not changed."

Vice President Harris tells CNN her values have not changed:

"I think the most important and most significant aspect of my policy perspective and decisions is my values have not changed. You mentioned the Green New Deal. I have always believed, and I have worked on it, that the climate crisis is real, that it is an urgent matter to which we should apply metrics that include holding ourselves to deadlines around time. We did that with the Inflation Reduction Act."

...

"We have set goals for the United States of America, and by extension, the globe, around when we should meet certain standards for reduction of greenhouse gas emissions ... My value around what we need to do to secure our border — that value has not changed. I spent two terms as the AG of California, prosecuting transnational criminal organizations, violations of American laws, regarding the passage, illegal passage of guns, drugs and human beings across our border. My values have not changed."

...

Vice President Harris just said in Savannah that she plans to unveil a small business tax credit policy proposal next week.

"I'm telling you, this is one of my singular priorities, is to invest and grow our small businesses."

1. NEW

Former President Trump tells NBC News that a six-week limit on abortions in Florida is too short.

He's asked in this clip if he's in favor of Amendment 4, a ballot initiative in Florida that would overturn the current ban on abortions past six weeks and make abortions legal up until fetal viability.

Trump here just says, "...I am gonna be voting that we need more than six weeks."
(cont)

6h6 hours ago

2. Given that he was asked a specific question about a specific ballot initiative that gives more weeks to women to access abortion care, Trump saying, "I'm gonna be voting that we need more than six weeks," makes it not unreasonable for people to say that Trump will be voting for Amendment 4.

Also, in this clip, Trump says that "everyone" wanted Roe v. Wade terminated for 52 years. That's obviously false—a lie.

A majority of Americans support abortion rights: 61% in a Pew poll in 2023.

We're going to run out of economically viable recoverable oil in the next 50 years. In the meantime, oil price fluctuations periodically trigger recessions in our economy, causing all kinds of hardship. All forms of energy have their drawbacks, but renewables are renewable. Florida [Republican] Rep. Carolina Amesty bonds out of jail, faces felony forgery charges

By Phillip Stucky

Orlando

UPDATED 5:18 PM ET Aug. 29, 2024 PUBLISHED 1:06 PM ET Aug. 29, 2024

Rep. Carolina Amesty bonded out of jail after turning herself in for booking at the Orange County jail Thursday afternoon in relation to an outstanding warrant for her arrest.

The Republican Florida House member is charged with four felonies. She's accused of notarizing her own signature, forgery, uttering forgery, and false notary certification.

According to our partners at the Orlando Sentinel, this follows a Florida Department of Law Enforcement investigation into her and her family's nonprofit school, Central Christian University.

Spectrum News reached out to Amesty and her staff members for comment, but has not received a response.

Amesty represents Florida House District 45, which includes parts of Orange and Osceola counties, and she's wrapping up her first term in office. Amesty is running for re-election in November and faces a general election challenge from former Disney executive Leonard Spencer.

The Amesty campaign released a statement saying she looks forward to her "day in court."

"This prosecution, initiated just a few weeks prior to absentee ballots being dropped, is based on misleading reports from a partisan newspaper about a notarization of an employee verification background report, the truth of the contents which have not been questioned in any manner. Rep. Amesty calls for a speedy trial, looks forward to her day in court, and is confident in her public vindication," the statement read.

"No amnesty for Amesty," posted Florida Democratic Party Chair Nikki Fried. "The Republican Party of Florida keeps showing us who there are. Time for her to resign from office or be removed."

Everyone's issue should be if menace and boy get the same tough questions and pushback. Like 3-4 follow ups per tough question.

Warning Signs of a Cult From The Cult Education Institute

- 1) The leader is always right.
- 2) Criticism of the leader or questioning the leader is considered persecution.
- 3) Anything the leader does is justified, no matter how harmful it may be.

Why are Trumpers at war with public education?

Because they want to DESTROY it.

They want to PRIVATIZE education and turn it into a for-profit industry they control.

They want to turn American education into one big Trump University.

That's why.

The vast majority of Trump voters have only a high school degree or are high school dropout, of course most of them hate education.

mogeorge1

I'm not at all sure that's true but I would love to get a breakout. I'm sitting in a well-educated, fairly affluent neighborhood filled with Trump voting Rs. No Trump flags. That would be embarrassing. But they never miss a vote.

lanie_r

5h5 hours ago

Oh it's worse than that. It's also about "dumbing down" the masses, keeping them as uneducated unskilled as possible, to control them. So that they'll accept any meager wage offered to them. So that they'll be so tired & beaten down from working 2 or 3 jobs just to survive, that they won't have the time or energy to even consider how the government should isn't providing adequate basic services like mass transit, policing, food safety, adequate medical services, building/repairing roads, etc.

They want to privatize and monetize every social system. Education will be only for the wealthy, our forests and national monuments will be sold off to the highest bidder, healthcare will only be affordable for the rich, our military will become their personal security force, and here's a thought - the more folks they can imprison, then tax us to pay for it, the richer they become. It's been underway for some time, we have to stop it. Vote! But don't jaywalk!
